Yearbooks generally have themes. We have spent much time trying to think of a theme that would adequately fit in with the many events that have taken place during this, the last year of Burnham High School.

This is the end of so many things, but yet the beginning of a new era. The beginning and the end — that seems to sum up our feelings. And so we chose the alpha and omega.

HOMECOMING

Our 1959 Homecoming queen, Barbara Coutcher, arrived amid the cheers of Burnhamites, past-grads, and followers. After the game, the queen and her court reigned over the dance held in their honor.

October 2, 1959, saw the last homecoming to be held at Memorial Field. Jim Schultz and George Tombaugh crowned the queen during the halftime ceremonies. Joey Glase, son of Coach Glase, carried the crown on a satin pillow.

Our memories, may they last forever . . . Remember when we were eighth graders, what a thrill it was to be, at last, in high school. We'll never forget how little, lost, and know-it-all we felt all at the same time. Our first highlighted activity of our 1960 class was the eighth grade picnic.

Time passed and so did we. Our freshman year was led by our president, Sandi Hill. There were many sock hops and games this year. We were very proud of the fact that this year we could be called high school students, for the eighth grade was not considered high school.

As we grew, so did our homework. The sophomore year was harder than any other. Remember the frog you cut up in biology, and the geometry you never could figure out. Still there were many good times. One of the highlights was our "Turkey Trot" at Thanksgiving time. Mrs. Morrison and Mr. Guyton became our class advisors this year and led us on up to our Senior year.

Our Junior Prom came finally, and Peggy Kennedy, queen, was the belle of the ball. Also, in our Junior year, we received our treasured class rings. Kathy Booth was our president this year.

At last we became Seniors with much to look forward and much to look back on. Our Homecoming, with president, Dan Knepper, escorting the queen, Barb Coutcher, was one of the main activities of the year. The Senior Prom and picnic are nights to remember, also.

There is no doubt that we are all looking forward to commencement. Some of us are going on to college, some to work or even marriage. But this year's commencement exercise will mean something very special to everyone. We, the class of 1960 will be the last senior class to graduate from Burnham. The "alpha" and "omega" have a number of meanings to us. We are beginning to prepare for a new life and the end of our high school days. This, also, means the beginning of a new high school, and the ending of future Seniors at Burnham. So long, Burnham "forever."

RETIREMENT PARTY

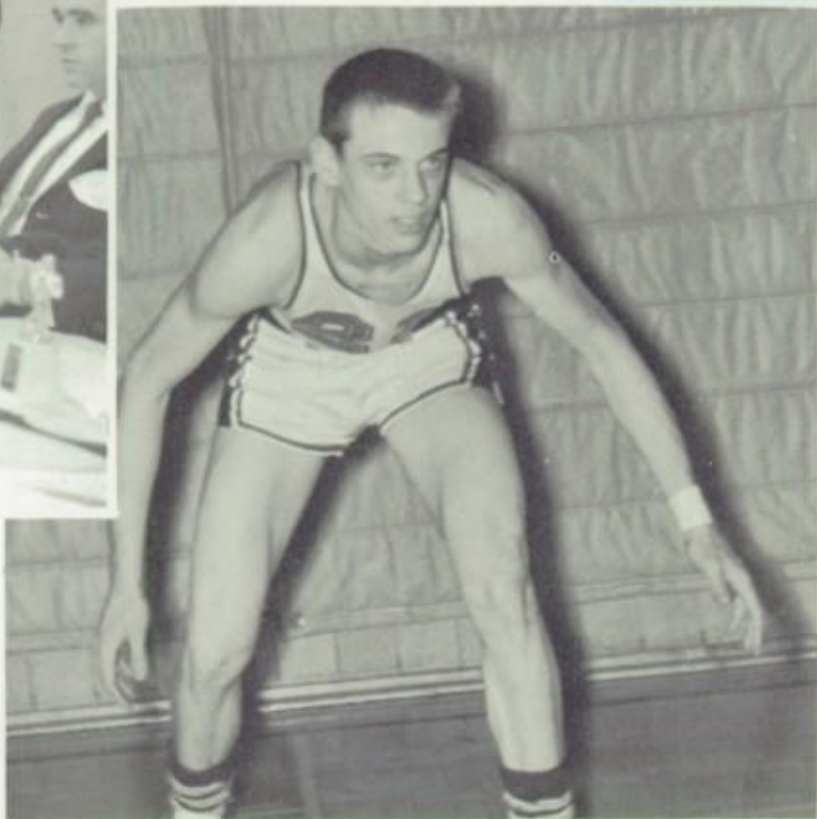

Forty years of invaluable service, not only teaching classes but helping to guide club activities, advising classes, and beginning the school newspaper, represent the life of Miss Helen Schroeder, who retired this year.

Among the accomplishments of Miss Schroeder were starting the first Burnham newspaper and organizing the first Girl Reserve group, later known as Y-Teens. All Burnhamites will remember her cheery manner and likable ways.

Members of the faculty honored Miss Schroeder with a tea, at which she was presented luggage.

- C is for the cheers that you work out routines to,
and all the hours of work it takes to find ideas new.
- H is for the hours you seem to spend all year,
preparing you to lead us in a simple cheer.
- E is for the energy you never seem to lack,
up and down, across, around, over, through, and back.
- E is for the effort that all of you must make to practice hard to get cheers right, and never a mistake.
- R is for the rhythm, the pep, the bounce, the beat that seems to catch the crowd and bring them to their feet.
- L is for your loyalty, to your school and to your team.
It takes a loyal leader to keep things on the beam.
- E is for the eagerness you show throughout the year.
You plan and lead the cheers for games away and here.
- A is for the ambition it takes to lead your cheers, to please the fans and all the kids, and help dispel their fears.
- D is for your devotion — neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor flu, nor fever, colds and such can knock you off your feet.
- E is for the ease with which you do each task that advisors, fans, and teachers always seem to ask.
- R is for the rahs, fifteen of them quite loud.
Because of each of you, we are all quite proud.

Leaders Club members, the girls who have earned their B in sports, have been Pappy's helping hand many times this year. Helping lead gym classes, presenting the 1960 Dance Capades and planning the GAA banquet took up much of their time. Producing dances, programs, and scenery for Dance Capades was largely their responsibility. Each girl must earn 900 points, which entitles them to a letter and their Leaders Club membership. However, it doesn't stop here. The girls go on to prove their leadership quality and try to earn their numeral and trophy.
